

JOYS THAT WE'VE TASTED

=====

Arranged for the Spanish Guitar

BY

SAMUEL CARUST.

Published by F. D. BENTEN, Baltimore.

Amused according to Act of Congress in the Year 1815, by F. D. Benten, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court.

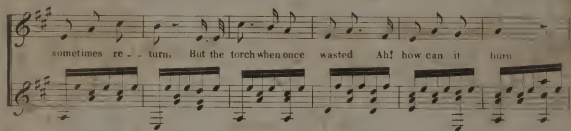

W. B. B. B.

VOICE.

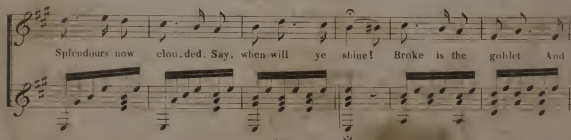

Joys that we've tasted say

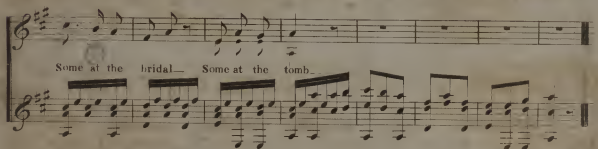

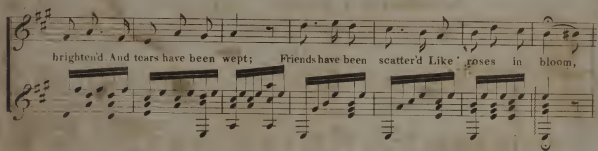

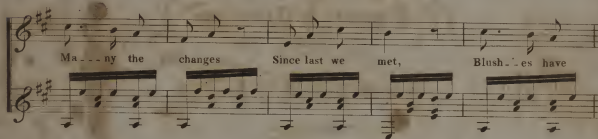

GUITAR.

sometimes re - turn. But the torch when once wasted Ah! how can it burn Splendours now cloud-ed. Say, when will ye shine! Broke is the goblet And

3

I've stood in yon chamber,

But one was not there,

Hush'd was the lute string

And vacant the chair—

Lips of love's melody,

Where are ye borne,

Never to smile again,

Never to mourn!

